Times' Cooking School Closes This Evening; To Award Five Grand Prizes

The Gettysburg Times' 32nd an-1 nual Cooking School will conclude its sessions this evening, starting at 7:30 o'clock at Gettysburg High School auditorium.

The program for the all-electric "fantasy of foods" being held by The Times in conjunction with the National Livestock and Meat Board will include a brief talk on uses of electricity by E. W. "Si" Mange of the Metropolitan Edison Co, instruction in cooking by Miss Constance Weiser, home economist from Chicago, and presentation of awards valued at approximately $3,000 to those attending the session.

Among awards will be approximately $1,000 in foodstuffs, several major prizes including a County Society for Crippled Chil-saries this week. "BEGINNING AGAIN"

It's never too late to start over . . beginning again can be fun . . . although you have lost a great treasure . . . there still is lot to be won . . . one error does not mean you're finished . . . defeat often preludes success . . . experience gathered through failure . . .

is a wonderful thing to possess . beginning again is a challenge . . . requiring much faith and hope . . . and there is a great satisfaction . . . in scaling a puzzling slope . . . sometimes in the quest for attainment . . . you'll find things that gold cannot buy . . . life is a joyful adventure . . . for those who have power to try . . . and so when misfortune surrounds you . . . keep searching and striving and then . . before many moons you'll be thankful . . . because you're beginning again.

A few still stick to the oldfashioned boom or bust. But many hold that the days of the real boom and real bust have been legislated out of any chance of return. Even a very bad day on the stock exchange doesn't shake their conviction.

Here are some of the terms that have cropped up now and then since the war to add zest-or perhaps confusion-to the art of naming economic trends.

QUESTION RECESSION

Recession. The term now being bandied about again has been used twice before since the war. It means a turn down in business. an upturn in unemployment, a slackening all along the line-but milder than the old fashioned term of depression. After the dread 1930s that word has become all but outlawed.

Rolling adjustment. This description of today's happenings isn't new either. It's been used several times since the war. It means that industries tend to have their own depressions at different times-some laid low while others are still climbing. Hence the total economy escapes anything like the U.S. Rep. John E. Fogarty was unopposed for Democratic renomination in the 2nd District.

A record 135,000 Democrats turned out for the rainy-day balloting. That vote was more than 40,000 over the previous high of wo years ago.

Christopher Del Sesto, first GOP governor in nearly 20 years, is seeking re-election.

Raoul Archambault Jr., former assistant director of the U.S. budget, is the Republican candidate for the Senate; and Theophile Martin is GOP nominee for the 1st District seat. The Republicans held their primary Sept. 19.

STRIKE HURTS STEEL PLANT

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)-Production at the Bethlehem Steel Corp., in nearby Lackawanna, the world's fourth largest mill, headed for slowdown Wednesday and shutdown today in the face of a strike by South Buffalo Railway employes.

About 575 members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen (conductors and brakemen) have set a 6 a. m. deadline for the walkout Thursday.

An estimated 25,000 workers with a weekly payroll of about $2.5 million will be affected, including the nearly 15,000 at the steel plant.

WAGES

Conductors receive $3.16 an hour, while brakemen are paid $2.98 an hour.

A union spokesman said the dispute concerned wages, work rules and an interpretation of the steel agreement.

DOCUMENTARY MR. PRESIDENT BY ABC MAKES DEBUT TUESDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)-A serious contender for honors among the documentary programs, ABC's new "Close Up" series, made its TV debut Tuesday night with a thoughtful look at prejudice and discrimination north of the Mason-Dixon line.

None of the show's raw material was new. Yet this pictorial roundup, with its earnest, restrained commentary, was a shocking indictment. Shown were the "Black ghetto" of Chicago, a Jewish physician excluded from Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Indians from a Nebraska reservation complaining about police brutality, Puerto Ricans crowded in expensive, crumbling New York tenements, and a snarling new-Nazi haranguing a

They were not pretty pictures, but they made a point. It is one of the most important new series. Anyway, it should be.

IN DEEP, OLD RUTS

While television is blazing new paths in the public affairs area, it is rumbling along dully in the deep ruts of other seasons in its entertainment fare. Now at the end of the first month of the new season, there has not yet been one new show with a fresh approach. The comedies sound like retreads of last year's jokes. The Westerns and action tales are even more dedicated to small plots and great violence than ever before-in spite of all the pious talk by the medium's moguls.

Last week's "Thriller," on NBC drew some mail from horrified viewers with its tale about the mentally disturbed little boy bent on shooting out his hatreds with

"Please, please," wrote one mother, "can't something be done to revise the code or censorship which allows a play like that to be shown?"

I guess not, madame. That series is dedicated to the proposition that exciting events befall an average citizen when a maniac enters his life, so it looks as if we are in for a full season of Tuesday night madness.

WOODROW WILSON

Born in Staunton, Virginia, December 28, 1856. He attended Davidson College, graduated from Princeton in 1879 and read law at University of Virginia. After practicing law in Atlanta for a year he attended John Hopkins University, graduating with a Ph.D. degree. He taught at Bryn Mawr College, Wesleyan University and at Princeton, becoming President of Princeton at the age of 46.

In 1910 he was elected Governor of New Jersey and the next year the Democrats nominated him for the Presidency. He was elected by a large majority in the electoral college due to a split of the Republican votes between the Progressives and Republicans.

Inaugurated the twenty-eighth President of the United States on March 4, 1913, he served two terms. In the first four years he put into law more economic reforms than were ever before made in the same length of time. After a two and one-half year struggle for neutrality, he declared war on Germany on April 6, 1917. Until the Armistice, November 11, 1918, he was the central figure in this great conflict.

He went in person to the Conference at Paris and grappled almost single-handed with the forces that kept Europe in conflict since the beginning of history. Broken in health, the result of his work on behalf of the League of Nations, he retired at the close of his tenure to his home in Washington where he died three years later on February 3, 1924, aged 67.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL

Born at North Manchester, Indiana, 1854. He graduated from Wabash College in 1873 and after two years' study of law was admitted to the bar. He established his residence in Columbia City, Indiana, and practiced law there throughout his life. He served as Governor of Indiana, 1909-13.

He was nominated and elected Vice-President of the United States in 1912 and again in 1916. He served eight years as an able assistant to President Wilson and was recognized as an outstanding presiding officer of the Senate. He died in 1925.

MRS. WOODROW WILSON

Ellen Axson (pictured above) born in 1860 in Georgia, was married at twentyfive to Woodrow Wilson. Intellectual, artistic and with a rare sweetness of nature, she submerged her own fine talents to make a home where her husband could find relaxation from the cares of public life. As hostess, when her husband was president of Princeton University and governor of New Jersey, she was well prepared for the White House where she received guests with simplicity and a gracious friendliness. Overtaxing her frail health, she became ill and died in 1914, seventeen months after coming to the Executive Mansion.

In 1915, President Wilson married beautiful Mrs. Norman Galt, a widow. She was born Edith Bolling in Virginia, 1872. Highly intelligent and cultured, she made a charming hostess. Her strength of character was a bulwark for her husband in the troubled days preceding and during World War I. During the long months between her husband's illness and death she was his constant companion, adviser and solace. Mrs. Wilson lives in Washington, D.C.
